

The Wilderness

"The Wilderness" is a gated equestrian neighborhood within Orange Park Acres comprised of 48 homes, with community riding trails and facilities throughout the Orange Park Acres neighborhoods.

Immediately upon entering The Wilderness community, there are two breezeway barns open to Wilderness residents only. Each barn has with 16 stalls (15x25 feet), for a total of 32 stalls in the community. Each stall has an automatic watering system, feed bins, and a huge tack box. The stable area also has a mounting block, separate areas for hay/feed storage, rakes and wheel barrows, a wash rack, a 15x40 foot lighted turn-out arena, and a hot-walker. In the center of the community, there are dedicated horse trails, and an approximately 60x100 foot lighted riding arena with bleacher seating.

The community also enjoys an RV lot right next to the stables area, where horse trailers (and other RVs) can be parked.
